Labour Reforms

2728. SHRIMATI VANGA GEETHA: Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to go for labour reforms;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether Government have got any proposal from the trade unions and labour organisations in this regard; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI MUNI LALL): (a) and (b) Review/updation of labour laws is a continuous process in order to bring them in tune with the prevailing situation and emerging needs of the economy. Reforms in labour laws in recent years have been necessitated with a view to make Indian industry efficient, cost effective and internationally competitive in the face of globalisation process. Accordingly, the Trade Unions Act, 1926 has been amended to reduce the multiplicity of trade unions and to ensure their orderly growth and internal democracy. A Group of Ministers (GOM) on Labour Reforms has approved amendment proposals in respect of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 and the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The Bills to this effect are likely to be introduced in the current Session of Parliament. Besides, the amendment to the Contract Labour Act has been discussed in detail by the GOM. The GOM is to further deliberate on this issue. The Government has also set up the Second National Commission on Labour with a view to suggest rationalization of existing laws relating to labour in the organised sector and to suggest an umbrella legislation for ensuring a minimum level of protection to the workers in the unorganised sector. The Commission is expected to submit its report shortly.

(c) and (d) The Central Trade Union Organisations have been generally opposing amendments in labour laws unless these are perceived as beneficial to the working class.
